

CHIP Shortfalls in FY '08 (in the absence of new federal funding)

States that can continue to operate through Sept. '08 without new federal funds (16)	Shortfall states (35)
	Shortfalls in Oct. '07 (15)	Other states that will face shortfalls at some point during FY '08 (20)
Colorado	Immediate shortfall beginning Oct. 1:	Alabama
Connecticut	Alaska ^M	Arizona*
Delaware ^C	Georgia	Arkansas ^C
District of Columbia ^M	Illinois ^C	California ^C
Florida ^C	Iowa ^C	Hawaii ^{M*}
Idaho ^C	Maine ^C	Kansas
Indiana ^C	Maryland ^C	Kentucky ^C
Nevada	Massachusetts ^{C*}	Louisiana ^M
New Hampshire ^C	Minnesota ^C	Michigan ^C
New York ^C	Mississippi	Montana
South Carolina ^M	New Jersey ^C	New Mexico ^M
Tennessee ^C	Rhode Island ^{C*}	North Dakota ^C
Texas	Wisconsin ^M	Ohio ^M
Vermont	Remaining allotments exhausted in Oct.:	Oklahoma ^M
Washington	Missouri ^M	Oregon*
Wyoming	Nebraska ^M	Pennsylvania
	North Carolina ^C	South Dakota ^C
		Utah
		Virginia ^C
		West Virginia

Source: Congressional Research Service, What Happens if SCHIP Is Not "Reauthorized"? August 28, 2007

^C State has a combination separate/Medicaid expansion CHIP program, so it could continue to operate the Medicaid expansion portion with the federal Medicaid match after federal CHIP funds are exhausted

^M State has a Medicaid expansion CHIP program, so it could continue to operate its CHIP program with the federal Medicaid match after federal CHIP funds are exhausted

* State has waiver authority to use Medicaid funds for CHIP in the case of a CHIP shortfall